[संख्या एफ० 10/7/67-पोलिटिकल-III.]

एल० पी० सिंह, सचिव।

New Delhi, the 8th April 1967

G.S.R. 476.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Indian Economic Service Rules, 1961, namely:—

1. (1) These rules may be called Indian Economic Service (First Amendment) Rules, 1967.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. In the Indian Economic Service Rules, 1961 (hereinafter referred to as the said rules), in rule 8 for sub-clause (d), the following sub-clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(d) Grade I—Director.

(i) Not less than 75 percent vacancies in this grade shall be filled by promotion from amongst Grade II officers who have put in at least three years of service in that Grade. Promotion will be made on the basis of merit with due regard to seniority, by the Controlling Authority on the advice of the Board.

(ii) Not more than 25 per cent of the vacancies in this grade shall be filled by direct recruitment through the Commission in the manner set out in Schedule II."

3. For Schedule II to the said rules, the following Schedule shall be substituted, namely—

"SCHEDULE II

(See rule 8)

Direct recruitment through the Union Public Service Commission.

PART I—General

1. Direct recruitment to—

(a) Grade IV of the Service shall be made through an open competitive examination in the manner prescribed in Part II of the Schedule; and

(b) Grades III, II and I of the Service shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Part III of the Schedule.

2. A candidate must be a citizen of India or he must belong to such categories of persons as may from time to time be notified by the Ministry of Home Affairs.

3. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means may be held by the Commission to disqualify him for admission to the examination/selection.

4 Success in the examination/selection confers no right to appointment, unless Government is satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the Service.

5. No candidate shall be appointed to the Service who after such medical examination, as the Government may prescribe, is not found to be in good mental or bodily health and free from any mental or physical defect likely to interfere with the discharge of the duties of the Service.

6. (a) No male candidate who has more than one wife living, or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the Service; and

(b) No female candidate whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage shall be eligible for appointment to the Service :

Provided that the Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so doing, exempt any male or female candidate from the operation of this paragraph.

PART II—Recruitment Through Competitive Examination to grade IV of the Service

1. Holding of Examination.—An examination (hereinafter referred to in this Schedule as Competitive examination) for appointment to Grade IV of the Service shall be held at such time and places as may be prescribed in the Notice issued by the Commission for the purpose. Every such Notice will, when possible, announce the number of vacancies to be filled on the result of the examination.

2. Conduct of Examination.—Every examination under this Part shall be conducted by the Commission in such manner as may be notified by the Government from time to time.

3. Combined Examination.—If an examination held under this Part is a combined examination for the purpose of making appointments to more than one Service, the following provisions shall apply, namely :—

(a) any person may apply to be admitted as a candidate for appointment in all or any of the Services for which he is eligible. If he wishes to be considered for appointment in more than one Service, he shall state in his application form the names of the Services for which he wishes to be considered, and the order of his preference for them, and in such cases only one application form will be necessary, and one payment of the fee referred to in paragraph 7 will be sufficient.

(b) Government shall assign successful candidates to each Service on a consideration of all circumstances, including any personal preference expressed by the candidates.

4. Form of Making Application.—A candidate must apply for admission to the examination before such date, in such manner, and in such form, as the Commission may prescribe.

5. Age Limits.—A candidate must have attained the age of 21 years and must not have attained the age of 26 years on the first day of January of the year in which the examination is held :

Provided that the upper age limit may be relaxed in respect of such categories as may be notified by the Government from time to time and to the extent notified in respect of each category :

Provided further that for the first two examinations to be held under these rules, the upper age limit of 26 years shall be relaxed up to 35 years.

SAVE AS PROVIDED ABOVE THE AGE LIMITS PRESCRIBED CAN IN NO CASE BE RELAXED.

6. Educational Qualifications.—A candidate must have obtained a degree in Science or Arts with Economics or Statistics as a subject or a degree in Commerce from a University incorporated by an Act of the Central or State Legislature in India or other Educational Institutes established by an Act of Parliament or declared to be deemed as Universities under section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956, or a foreign University approved by the Central Government from time to time.

NOTE.—(i) In exceptional cases, the Commission may treat a candidate, who has not any of the qualifications prescribed above, as educationally eligible provided that he has passed examinations conducted by other institutions, the standard of which, in the opinion of the Commission, justifies his admission to the examination.

(ii) Candidates who are otherwise eligible but who have taken degrees from foreign Universities which are not recognised by the Government may also apply for admission to the examination and may be admitted at the discretion of the Commission.

(iii) A candidate who has appeared at an examination, the passing of which would render him eligible to appear at the examination but has not been informed of the result, may apply for admission to the examination. A candidate who intends to appear at such a qualifying examination may also apply, provided that the qualifying examination is completed before the commencement of the examination. Such a candidate will be admitted to the examination, if otherwise eligible, but the admission would be deemed to be provisional and subject to cancellation if he does not produce proof of having passed the examination as soon as possible, and in any case not later than two months after the commencement of the examination.

7. Fee.—A candidate must pay the fee prescribed by the Commission unless exempted therefrom or granted concession thereof in accordance with the exemptions and/or concessions in this respect notified from time to time.

8. Decision of the Commission to be Final.—The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final; and no candidate to whom a certificate of admission has not been issued by the Commission shall be admitted to the examination.

9. Penalty for Misconduct.—A candidate who is or has been declared by the Commission guilty of impersonation, or of submitting fabricated document or documents which have been tampered with, or of making statements which are incorrect or false, or of suppressing material information, or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination, or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall, or of misbehaviour in the examination hall, may, in addition to rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution,

(a) be debarred permanently or for a specified period.—

(i) by the Commission from admission to any examination or appearance at any interview held by the Commission for selection of candidates; and

(ii) by the Government from employment under them;

(b) be liable to disciplinary action under the appropriate rules if he is already in service under Government.

10. Preparation of List of Successful Candidates.—After the examination the candidates will be arranged by the Commission in the order of merit as disclosed by the aggregate marks finally awarded to each candidate; and in that order so many candidates as are found by the Commission in their discretion to be qualified by the examination shall be recommeded for appointment up to the number of un-reserved vacancies decided to be filled on the results of the examination:

Provided that any candidate belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes who though not qualified by the standard prescribed by the Commission for the Service, is declared by them to be suitable for appointment thereto with due regard to the maintenance of efficiency of administration, shall be recommended for appointment to vacancies reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, in the Service.

PART III—Recruitment Through Selection to Grades III, II and I of the Service.

1. A candidate for admission to the Selection must apply before such date, in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed by the Commission.

2. A candidate must pay the fee prescribed by the Commission, unless exempted therefrom or granted concession thereof in accordance with the exemptions and/or concessions in this respect notified from time to time.

(Companies Tribunal)

New Delhi, the 28th March 1967

G.S.R. 489.—The following is published for general information:—

ADDENDA No. III TO REGULATIONS OF THE COMPANIES TRIBUNAL

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (5) of section 10-B of the Companies Act, 1956, and subject to the provisions of the aforesaid Act and the rules made thereunder, wherever applicable, the Tribunal hereby makes the following regulations, namely:

1. (i) These regulations shall be cited as the Companies Tribunal (Amendment) Regulations, 1967.

(ii) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. In the Companies Tribunal Regulations, 1964 (hereinafter referred to as the said regulations), for Chapter XI, the following Chapter shall be substituted, namely:—

CHAPTER XI

Application under Section 240-A of the Act

(1) Every application under sub-section (1) of section 240-A of the Act shall be presented in form No. 7-A stating the reasons which have given the applicant reasonable ground to believe that the books and papers of, or relating to, any company or other body corporate or any managing agent or secretaries and treasurers or managing director or manager of such company or other body corporate, or any associate of such managing agent or secretaries and treasurers may be destroyed, mutilated, altered, falsified or secreted and shall be verified by an affidavit of the Inspector.

(2) Every order issued by the Tribunal under sub-section (2) of Section 240-A of the Act shall be in Form No. 7-B.

(3) Immediately after the execution of the order issued by the Tribunal under sub-section (2) of section 240-A of the Act, the Inspector shall submit a return certifying as to what has been done under it and shall also furnish a list of the books and papers, if any, seized.

(4) The Inspector shall give information to the Tribunal under sub-section (3) of Section 240-A of the return of books and papers to the company or the other body corporate, or, as the case may be, to the managing agent, or the secretaries and treasurers or the associate of such managing agent or secretaries and treasurers or the managing director or the manager or any other person concerned. Such information shall be accompanied by a statement of papers and books returned and shall be furnished within two weeks of the return whenever made as stipulated in sub-section (3) of Section 240-A.

(5) The above Regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to the applications filed under Section 234-A of the Companies Act.

3. In the said Regulations, after Form No. 7, the following Forms shall be inserted, namely:—
